

Common questions you might face at the port of entry when entering the U.S. on an H1B visa in 2024. These questions are typically focused on confirming your eligibility and intentions while in the U.S.

Top Port of Entry Immigration Questions for H1B (2024):

1. What is the purpose of your visit to the United States?

- Expected Answer: You should clearly state that your purpose is to work in a specific role under the H1B visa, mentioning the company you will be working for and the job title.

2. Can you provide your H1B approval notice (Form I-797)?

- Expected Answer: Have your original I-797 approval notice ready to show to the officer.

3. What company will you be working for?

- Expected Answer: Name the employer listed on your H1B petition and briefly describe the nature of the company.

4. What is your job title and what will your responsibilities be?

- Expected Answer: Be ready to describe your job role, including your specific tasks, responsibilities, and how it relates to the position approved in your H1B petition.

5. Where will you be working (city, office address)?

- Expected Answer: Provide the exact address of your work location, which is typically listed on your H1B petition.

6. How long do you intend to stay in the U.S.?

- Expected Answer: Mention the length of time approved for your H1B visa (up to 3 years for an initial period) and whether you intend to apply for an extension or adjustment of status later.

7. Can you show your passport with your H1B visa stamp?

- Expected Answer: Have your passport with the valid H1B visa stamp and any additional supporting documentation like the I-797 and visa approval notice ready for inspection.

8. Do you have any previous U.S. immigration history or violations?

- Expected Answer: Be truthful about any past U.S. immigration encounters. If you have none, simply confirm that you don't.

9. Have you ever worked in the U.S. before on an H1B visa or any other visa?

- Expected Answer: If you have worked in the U.S. before, provide details about your previous H1B employment or any other visa status you held.

10. Are you planning to apply for a green card in the future?

- Expected Answer: If applicable, you can mention your plans, but ensure that you're clear that your current status is for temporary employment on an H1B visa.

It's important to answer these questions truthfully and provide any supporting documents they might request. Be confident and prepared with all necessary paperwork, including your H1B approval notice (Form I-797), passport, visa stamp, and any other relevant documents.
