

Top Immigration Questions Related to Client Letter and Project Description:

1. Can you provide the client letter for your H1B assignment?

- Expected Answer: Present the client letter that confirms your employment and details the nature of the project or services you will be working on.

2. What is the client company's name and location?

- Expected Answer: Provide the name and location of the client company where you will be working, as outlined in your client letter.

3. What is your role in the client's project?

- Expected Answer: Describe your specific job title, responsibilities, and your role in the project(s) you will be working on at the client's site.

4. Can you explain the nature of the project you will be working on for the client?

- Expected Answer: Offer a detailed explanation of the project, including its objectives, scope, and how your skills will contribute to its success.

5. How long is your assignment at the client site?

- Expected Answer: Indicate the duration of your contract or assignment with the client, which should align with the terms in your H1B application.

6. Do you work directly for the client, or is your employer the one managing the project?

- Expected Answer: Clarify your employment relationship, whether you are employed by the sponsoring company or if you are directly contracted with the client.

7. Does your employer have a direct contract with the client?

- Expected Answer: Confirm whether the sponsoring employer has a direct contractual relationship with the client. If so, explain the terms as necessary.

8. What skills or qualifications are required for the project?

- Expected Answer: Explain the skills, experience, and qualifications that make you eligible for this role and how they align with the project's needs.

9. Will you be working under the supervision of your employer or the client?

- Expected Answer: Clarify whether you will be reporting to your employer, the client, or both, as specified in the client letter and project description.

10. Do you have any documents showing the client's requirement for your specific expertise?

- Expected Answer: If available, provide additional documentation, such as a job description from the client or any proof of the client's need for your skills or role.

11. What is the client's business sector or industry?

- Expected Answer: Briefly describe the client's industry, whether it's technology, finance, healthcare, or another sector relevant to your work.

12. What specific technologies or tools will you be using in this project?

- Expected Answer: List the tools, technologies, or platforms you'll be using as part of the project, especially if they are specialized or require specific expertise.

13. How does your role align with the H1B petition you filed?

- Expected Answer: Connect your responsibilities as described in the client letter to the job details outlined in your H1B petition to show consistency.

14. Can you provide a detailed description of your daily tasks on this project?

- Expected Answer: Be prepared to describe your day-to-day duties on the project, demonstrating how your role is integral to the success of the client's work.

15. What happens if the client changes or cancels the project?

- Expected Answer: You can explain that any changes to the client relationship or project will be handled according to the terms of your contract, but be honest about any contingencies.

Additional Tips:

- Client Letter: Ensure the letter includes clear details about the client, the duration of the project, your job title, and your responsibilities. This document should be signed by a client representative, typically an HR or project manager.

- Project Description: Ensure that the project description is specific, aligns with the job role in your H1B petition, and emphasizes the specialized nature of the work to demonstrate the need for a foreign worker in that role.